

Clients who come to know Britney discover a skilled, compassionate attorney who will honor their trust, protect their interests, and guide them through a difficult time to a stronger place in their lives. With experience in family law and a background in commercial litigation, Britney manages the spectrum of family law issues, offering special expertise in custody cases, complex property issues, and divorces involving same sex couples. Britney represents executives and professionals, working parents, and stay-at-home spouses. She is known for her strong advocacy on behalf of clients including those who feel they have had no voice in their marriage.

Britney approaches divorce in the most constructive way possible, finding unique, creative solutions for each individual family and helping clients to end their marriage with dignity. Having gone through divorce herself, Britney understands the highs and lows her clients experience. She works to humanize the process and provide a safe space for clients to express their emotions and feel at ease.

In custody cases, Britney prioritizes the needs of children and helps spouses develop effective co-parenting plans. She also understands special needs children and can assist parents with accessing available resources. While Britney prefers to resolve cases out of court, she does not hesitate to litigate when it will best serve clients.

In every case, she recognizes that individuals do not make the decision to see a family lawyer lightly. She stands by her clients' side, striving to bring peace back to their lives while they end one chapter and begin a new one.

A passionate servant leader, Britney was recently sworn in as President of the Texas Young Lawyers Association, where she works to mentor and empower the next generation of legal professionals. An Austin native, Britney received her law degree, with honors, from the University of Texas School of Law in 2010. Of all her achievements, Britney is most proud of putting her dad through college. An in-depth look into Britney and how her mantra “You Have A Voice” drives her is featured in the Texas Bar Journal and Talk Bravely podcast.
