

Caroline Galloway

"I advocate passionately for my clients and believe that compassion and understanding are key elements in assisting my clients to achieve the best results possible given their circumstances." - Caroline

Caroline's experience working with families in crisis helps her to empower her clients to emerge from their difficult circumstances even stronger.

Prior to joining GoransonBain Ausley, Caroline worked as an attorney with the Legal Assistance Foundation of Chicago, where she represented disabled children living in foster care, and low-income families. She assisted her clients with education issues, public benefits, and access to healthcare cases. Caroline also worked as a victim's advocate at a domestic violence and sexual assault crisis center.

As a family lawyer, Caroline knows the importance of understanding her clients' legal needs and helping them understand the legal process. She applies her training in active listening, crisis intervention, and case management to help clients navigate difficult family law problems. Caroline also uses her experience working with business owners to assist with
